

Important Information for Clients Wanting to Avoid County Jail

Electronic Monitoring available for longer sentences (when city jail is not feasible)

The moment client knows his surrender date call this number:

213.893.5369

- Tell them case number, length of sentence, and date of surrender
- Client will have to apply for Electronic Monitoring Program
- It is around $100/week
- Client must have access to a landline (this is how they are checked up on)
- They will serve half their sentence; for instance, on 180 days they will do 90 on electronic monitoring
- Once they arrive at IRC, there is an electronic monitoring clerk who will have processed/approved applications
